

Die Schuldigkeit des Ersten und Vornehmsten

GEBOTES

Volume 1, Number 1

12 June 1971

This is the magazine with the longest title of all postal Dippy games, DIE SCHULDIGKEIT DES ERSTEN UND VORNEHMSTEN GEBOTES, published by Conrad von Notke, 1530 1/2 Dale Street, San Diego, California 92102. The magazine was created to carry Game 1971-BA, the Press Release Game, which begins herewith. Subscriptions are integral with those to COSTA-GUMM. No games open now or ever.

By way of introduction to those few receiving the magazine (other than players), the present game was originally put together by the publisher last year. The idea was to compile a list of seven players and present it to any game-master who wanted it, paying him a $5.00 fee to run it. Only one GM could be found who would take it, and he took our game fees and shipped out. (That was Scott Hankin, who is herewith blacklisted.) The game then withered for a while, until I recently decided to revive it. This time I undertook the publishing myself, and found a person to replace me as a player. Finally we are ready to go. The purpose of the game is to write press releases. Any player may submit anything, of any length or content; no restrictions. The Games-master may also write material. No outside material will be accepted.

The player list is:

AUSTRIA: Harry Manogg, P.O. Box 769, Kankakee, Illinois 60901.
ENGLAND: Ian Barrows, P.O. Box 448, Chula Vista, California 92012.
FRANCE: Larry Pocky, 750 'I' Avenue, Coronado, California 92118.
GERMANY: Eric Just, P.O. Box 151, Paoli, Oklahoma 75074.
ITALY: Rodney Walker, 5056 Hawley Blvd., San Diego, California 92116.
RUSSIA: Robert J. Ward, 2423 'P' Street, Sacramento, Calif. 95816.
TURKEY: Brenton Ver Ploeg, 1823 Sheridan Road, Evanston, Illinois 60201.

Spring 1901 moves will be due Saturday, July 10, 1971. COSTA and SEAB players note the different deadline; I am purposely going to offset this game in order to make my job a bit easier.

Excuse the change of typewriters at this point.

As to the rule concerning eliminations, the vote was 2-2-2-0 with one vote not received. This accomplishes nothing. At the rate we are going we may never get it settled. But we shall try again. With your Spring 1901 Moves and press crud, please return the attached form and vote again.

House rules are enclosed, subject only to the elimination rule modification after the vote above.
